

Yến Nguyễn
HR & Admin Manager

Graduated from Ho Chi Minh City Institute for Cadre Development (2008), specializing in Administrative Law and from Ho Chi Minh City University of Social Sciences and Humanity in English Linguistics and Literature (2010), Yen Nguyen joined our company since September 2010, starting as an Administrator and has constantly proven herself to be hard working and continue to improve her performances. In 2014, Yến has successfully won the company title of “Best Employee of HR & Administration Department” Award.

Prior to joining Prime, Yen Nguyen began her career as an Assistant to Factory Director at SEAREFICO Company since 2008, which exposed her to all aspects of Human Resources and Administration Management.

With many years of experience together with the enthusiasm, passion and responsibility in her work, Yen Nguyen has quickly adopted the company culture soon after joining Prime and always tries her best to fulfill her assignment and to act as an important link between the Management and Staff.

With Yen Nguyen, being the Head of Human Resources and Administration Department is a great honor cum great challenge. However, Yen Nguyen is always aware of her area of responsibility and authority, and always tries her best to find a common language amongst the management and staff within our organization.
